

HARD-TALK

„ASYLUM AND REFUGEES - LEGAL AFFAIRS”

Asst. Prof. Bartłomiej Oręziak, PhD is a Coordinator of the Center for Strategic Analyzes of the Institute of Justice, PhD in legal sciences, researcher in the Central European Professors' Network 2021 (Research group „The Impact of Digital Platforms and Social Media on Freedom of Expression and Pluralism”), researcher in the Central European Professors' Network 2022 (Research group „Right to Privacy”), researcher at Central European Professors' Network 2023 (Research group “Migration Challenges – Legal Responses”), associate at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, laureate of the Minister of Science and Higher Education Scholarship for outstanding achievements in science for the academic year 2017/2018, winner of the DOCUP 2020 competition, Representative of the Institute of Justice in the Artificial Intelligence Working Group at the Chancellery of the President Council of Ministers, author of several dozen scientific texts (articles, chapters, glosses, etc.), manager and member of international and national research projects, as well as a speaker and organizer of international and national scientific conferences. Main interests: new technologies law, human rights protection, intellectual property law, public international law and criminal law and trial.

HARD-TALK

„ASYLUM AND REFUGEES - LEGAL AFFAIRS”

Julia Starybrat – a final year law student at the Faculty of Law and Administration of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, president of the Scientific Association of Criminal Trial Law and member of the didactic committee at the Faculty of Law and Administration of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw. On a daily basis associated with the Institute of Justice, where she works as a technical-scientific employee. Manager of many research and scientific projects and organiser of many conferences, both national and international. Member in international and national research and scientific projects and speaker at international and national scientific conferences. She also contributes as a columnist to prestigious legal periodicals and other publications.

Main interests focus on issues related to criminal law and criminal procedure, protection of human rights and European Union law.

HARD-TALK

„ASYLUM AND REFUGEES - LEGAL AFFAIRS”

Tomasz Bojanowski – lawyer, PhD student at the Doctoral School of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw. Graduate of Law at the Faculty of Law and Administration of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw. Winner of the Scholarship of the Minister of Science and Higher Education for outstanding achievements in science for the academic year 2021/2022 and of the Scholarship of the President of the City of Warsaw named after John Paul II. Member of international and national research projects, as well as speaker and organiser of international and national scientific conferences. Main interests: criminal law, criminalistics, protection of human rights, constitutional law, administrative law.

HARD-TALK

„ASYLUM AND REFUGEES - LEGAL AFFAIRS”

Agata Wróbel is a law student at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, multiple winner of the rector's scholarship for the best students, member of the boards of the Scientific Circle of Procedural Criminal Law and the Scientific Circle of International Law and Human Rights of UKSW. In her professional capacity, she is actively engaged in international research initiatives led by the Institute of Justice in Warsaw. Furthermore, she is an organizer and presenter at both international and national scientific conferences, and shares her knowledge through the publication of her first scientific articles. Her research interests include new technology law, artificial intelligence, intellectual property law, civil law and civil procedure.

HARD-TALK

„ASYLUM AND REFUGEES - LEGAL AFFAIRS”

Wiktoria Zwolińska is a law student at the Faculty of Law and Administration of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, a member of the UKSW Scientific Circle of Procedural Criminal Law. She is active in the Student Government and realizes herself as a Parliamentarian of UKSW. Professionally, she cooperates with the Publishing House of the Institute of Justice in Warsaw. Her main area of scientific interest is focused on children's rights, protection of human rights, criminal law.